A Merry Christmas to our amazing Trinity Family

We have had a challenging year but our school family have pulled together reaffirming that we are truly terrific Trinitarians. Throughout this week and next we have planned many activities to keep the Christmas spirit active and exciting for our whole community. This year each small activity has required a tremendous amount of additional planning to ensure we keep everyone safe. From the evidence of the primary year group christmas shows it has all been worth the effort. Our pupils have been triumphant and truly courageous in their singing and performances. We are equally as proud as you are of our pupils. Please also do watch our online Christmas show this year by following this link <https://youtu.be/YyuKHJVKyhM>.

We are delighted to announce our new Head of Primary Phase will be Ms Amanda Harvey. She will officially start with us straight after the Easter break. To ensure a smooth transition we have an agreement with her current employer to support the handover from Christmas. She is currently working as the Atlas Deputy Directory of Primary for the Haberdashers' Aske's Federation. Amanda Harvey originally comes from Ontario, Canada. She has over 16 years of teaching experience in the UK and has been working for the Aske's Federation from 2010, where she has been a Deputy Headteacher, Interim Headteacher and now a school improvement partner. We are very excited about Ms Harvey joining our family and will ensure you get an opportunity to meet her before she officially starts with us.

This week we have our Christmas meal on Wednesday. Those on Free School Meals will get this automatically, those that pay in the primary will also get this, and those in the secondary that want it will need to make sure you buy the Christmas lunch token on Parent Pay. This ensures enough food is prepared for the day. This day is also our 'Christmas Jumper' / 'Festive' non-uniform day. We are collecting £1 for charity on this day. You may have heard that the DFE announced this week that schools could chose to take Friday 18th as an INSET day, but we have decided to stick by our calendar. Our last school day is Friday 18th December – please see the dismissal times within this newsletter. Please remember Monday 4th of January is an inset day and therefore pupils will start back with us on Tuesday 5th of January. This INSET day has been planned extremely tightly to ensure staff are kept within their phases and bubbles with the use of technology to ensure our risk assessment is fulfilled.

Have an amazing weekend. Please do follow the guidelines for the area you live in and always remember the importance of hands, face and space. We need to stay vigilant throughout the Christmas season to ensure we can all return safely back to school in the New Year. Stay safe.

PRIMARY PHASE

Seek and find the Elf in the December newsletters.

Dear Trinity families,

It has certainly begun to feel a lot like Christmas this week. Thank you to everyone who attended our Live Zoom Christmas Singalongs. It would not have been Christmas without seeing and hearing Trinitarians sing! A big thank you to Mrs Bibbi-Thompson, who organised it all and ensured it was safe to do so in this current climate.

Next week we look forward to having our school Christmas lunch in our bubbles as well as class individual parties.

You will have also received a text this week with your child's class Home Learning Exhibition date. This will also be posted on your child's Class Dojo. We look forward to our Trinitarians sharing all of the learning they have completed at home.

Unfortunately, we have had to ask our Year Two bubble to self-isolate for the last week, to ensure everyone is safe. All families will have received a letter with more information about this. Both Miss Gibbins and Miss Stevenson are looking forward to their morning meets with the children through Zoom, which will be posted on your child's Class Dojo.

Please see below for key dates for the last week of term.

Key dates before the end of term:
Key date:	Event:	Extra information:
16.12.20	Christmas lunch	Pupils can come to school in something 'Christmassy'. Please let the office know if you would like school dinner that day if you usually have packed lunch
17.12.20	Christmas parties	Classes will have their own party in the classroom this year to maintain bubbles, including games provided by PAFT. Pupils can come to school in something 'Christmassy'.
18.12.20	Last day of term	This is a half day. End times are as follows: RB, Y1 and Y2: 1:40pm RS, Y5 and Y6: 1:50pm Y3 and Y4: 2:00pm

2020

Wow what a week it has been, this week has been a very busy week at Trinity. It has been brilliant this week, we have had our Christmas singing at the primary site which was really uplifting and Christmassy. Our faith teams across both sites finished writing their community Christmas cards this week and we collected our final Christmas gifts. We also had our parent's prayer group.

A huge thank you to all the Trinity families who contributed to this year's Christmas appeal. We managed to donate a huge variety of Christmas gifts to the Salvation Army's Christmas appeal.

This week we have also been promoting our Trinity advent calendar, all Trinity pupils across both sites can enter this challenge. Each day has a different challenge for pupils to complete. An adult will need to sign off each challenge. The challenge then needs to be handed in to me by the Friday 8th December. It has been great to see many of our Trinity pupils completing the first 11 days.

Refugees: Forced to Flee

Refugees: Forced to Flee, the new exhibition at IWM London, explores a century of refugee experiences. From Nazi Germany, to the Calais Jungle and the treacherous Mediterranean crossings, ordinary people are forced to make extraordinary decisions should they stay or go? The exhibition also highlights the UK's response to refugee crises over the last 100 year.

For social distancing guidelines and to book a free ticket, visit: <https://www.iwm.org.uk/>

From Birth till Death: Scrolled Life Stories

What would your life story look like if you told it solely through symbols? Enter a dramatic installation of giant papyrus scrolls and discover local life stories told in symbols at the Horniman Museum's new exhibition. Each scroll hanging in this exhibition will be one individual's story and visitors can enjoy decoding the scrolls, helping to normalise untold stories from our communities.

Trinity Copper Coin House Charity Event

Have you ever found a penny on the ground and thought twice about picking it up? It's one measly cent and weren't we going to get rid of the penny anyway? We all know once that copper coin lands in our pocket, it's destined to be tossed in the junk drawer or left in your pocket only to be heard clanging in the washer or dryer.

On Wednesday 16th December, we will have our Christmas Jumper day at Trinity. We couldn't miss this opportunity to launch a House Charity event. House captains will be collecting copper coins for charity at the school entrance only on that day. Please send in any loose change to go in the jars to support your house.

Silver coins will be accepted, however, it won't count in your house total amount.

Bring in your copper coins on Wednesday 16th December and don't forget your Christmas jumper!

Trinity "Wall Sit" House Challenge

House Captains will run the competition during lunchtime on the following dates below:

- Competition within their houses on Tuesday 8th and Thursday 10th December;
- Inter-House Semi-Final competition on Monday 14th December;
 - o Michael vs Zadkiel
 - o Gabriel vs Raphael
- Inter-House 3rd Place and Final to take place on Tuesday 15th December
- Maths House Challenge will take place between 14th and 17th December
