Trinity Commitments

Trinity is fully committed to promoting Equality and Diversity.

We ensure that everything we do helps to:

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Equality Act 2010
- Advance the equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those that do not.

Trinity Commitments

Trinity school is committed to building a workforce which reflects diversity from the communities it serves and values the contributions from all staff from a wide range of different backgrounds. The School actively seeks to promote an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment and where all staff and pupils are encouraged to fulfil their full potential.

Our policy covers the need for equality in respect of the following protected characteristics:

- Age
- Disability
- Pregnancy, maternity and paternity
- Sexual orientation
- Race (including nationality; ethnic or national origin)
- Gender (including gender reassignment) □ Marital Status including civil partnership
- Domestic circumstances
- Carer responsibilities
- Religion or belief
- Trade union membership
- Social / economic background

LEARNING, LOVING AND LIVING

Trinity School seeks to be an equal opportunity employer and is opposed to all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination. We are determined to ensure that everyone working in or coming into contact with the School is treated fairly and not discriminated against on any of the above grounds.

Our employment practices comply fully with current equalities legislation and associated codes of conduct. Decisions on recruitment and selection, promotion, training and other benefits are made objectively, without unlawful discrimination and based upon objective criteria.

We will aim for our workforce, including volunteers, to reflect the diverse society which we serve and provide a working environment free from any form of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, bullying or victimisation.

We recognise that the provision of equality of opportunity in all our activities will benefit the school. Our policy will help all staff to develop their full potential and talents and resources of staff will be utilised fully to maximise the effectiveness of the work of the school.

All employees are expected to co-operate fully with this policy and any member of staff found to have committed an act, or acts of discrimination or harassment will be dealt with under the School Disciplinary procedure. Proven discrimination or harassment will lead to summary dismissal.

Responsibilities

Governors	Governors are responsible for making sure that Trinity complies with the provision of the Equality Act 2010 and any other relevant legislation. They achieve this broad aim by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promoting equality as an explicit aim in all school policies and ensuring it underpins all aspects of its work • Ensuring that this policy reflects a belief in diversity that embraces individuals and promotes community spirit • Ensuring that policies are developed through wide consultation in school and with the wider community • Ensuring no pupil is discriminated against in the provision of services offered to pupils that relate to education • Ensuring all job descriptions include a commitment to equality and diversity as part of their specifications • Ensuring that all recruitment, employment, promotion and staff development policies and practice reflect the ethos of Trinity and the requirements of equality legislation. • Incorporating equality targets into the School Improvement Plan to ensure all individuals and groups, regardless of protected characteristics, achieve their potential and make good progress.
