

TRINITY CHARTER

EARLY YEARS
AND KEY STAGE ONE

LEARNING - LOVING - LIVING

OUR ETHOS STATEMENT

WE ARE A LEARNING COMMUNITY

WE ARE A LOVING FAMILY

WE ARE LIVING GOOD LIVES

At Trinity we believe that children are entitled to a broad and balanced curriculum that develops the whole child. With this entitlement, our children will have access to new experiences and have a life-enhancing encounter with the Christian faith.

Our Trinity Charter is designed to ensure we provide and celebrate the whole child's achievements, with a particular focus on our learning, loving and living ethos.

Our Merit Charter is built around a range of experiences that all children will gain whilst attending our school.

The Distinction Charter is a collection of additional achievements that children can choose to accomplish over the Key Stage. For this element of the charter, the children must share their accomplishments with their class and share any supporting photographs, certificates or evidence they may have.

At the end of the Key Stage, the children will receive their award during a special worship and they will progress onto the next stage.

reindeer who worked for Santa.

Once upon a time there was a reindeer who had a dream who was to work for Santa Claus by being a reindeer helping ride the sleigh. One day he received a invitation to work for Santa Claus. He was so happy but his friends did not believe him when he told them about it. He then showed them the letter that they got from Santa Claus. He told them it would be starting on the 1st of October. He then took a piece of scrap paper out of his bag and said, "What would you like me to bring you for Christmas?" He then wrote down every thing each one of them wanted. The next day it was the first of October.

The girl who was trapped in a present.

Once upon a time there was a girl who got trapped in a present. Her name was Holly and she was eight years old. This is the story of how it all happened...

Her sister Ivy was wrapping up a present for Santa (a sleigh) when Holly decided to have a nap in the newly wrapped present. When she woke up, she found herself lying and wriggling inside the box. "Oh no!" She gasped. "Ivy must have packed me in here!" Then she realized there was a little hole so she could see where she was going. Suddenly, she noticed a covering building. "That's the smell of the Eiffel Tower!" she thought. "I must be in France!" Suddenly, the delicious smell of croissants baking in the oven wafted over to her. "How I wish I could eat one of those," she wondered. By now, she had reached the Empire State Building in USA. Another really small step of presents and holidays. "I've been happy by now. I wish I could eat something!" she sighed. "Then she asked I'll get something to eat when I reach Santa's grotto." Then she remembered that Ivy had also packed a lot of mice, pigs. So Holly crawled to the back of the present and sat down to eat them all. "I hope Santa doesn't mind," she mumbled with a mouthful of mouse. Suddenly, a large brick wall appeared in sight. "The great wall of China!" she gasped. "Now how have I been travelling?"
